Following Jesus:

"For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:" – 1 Peter 2:21

God wants us to copy Christ and reproduce his character in our lives.

"Follow" means to follow after, follow close upon. The implication is that we are to comply closely with the life of Christ. We should put our lives in conjunction with Christ. God wants us to go the same way as Jesus (Mk. 8:34; 9:38; 10:21). We should make our lives happen along with his, to accompany him along the journey. The implication is that we are to follow Christ wholly or to devote ourselves to him. God wants us to give Jesus our whole heart. God wants us to take the same road as Jesus. He wants us to follow closely upon his path.

"Steps" means tracks. We are to follow the tracks of Christ. Our behavior should be the same as his. Let us imitate him. We do not do as others do; we do as he does. The New Testament uses the word "steps" of Abraham's faith (Rom. 4:12) and for carrying on the work of the Gospel (2 Cor. 12:18). We are to take the same road as Christ of applying the truth of unjust suffering to experience.

Note that this passage does not say "follow in his steps." It merely says, "follow his steps."

God wants us to go in the same direction he went (Heb. 12:1-4). We get our signals from him. He sets the example for us to follow (Ro. 15:3).

If we do something wrong at work, how do we react? Is there any difference in the way we respond from the way those who do not know Christ? If our reaction is different from theirs, they will sit up and take notice. We have something that they do not have. This has a great influence on non-Christians. However, this is precisely where we fail before our wives, husbands, children, parents, and business associates.
